

header-desktop

The diagram illustrates a desktop header layout within a light blue rounded rectangle. It is divided into two main horizontal sections. The top section, labeled 'header-desktop', has a light orange background and contains a yellow 'logo' box on the left and a green box on the right which contains a yellow 'utility-link' box. The bottom section, labeled 'top-level-navbar', has a light purple background and contains four blue rectangular navigation items.
